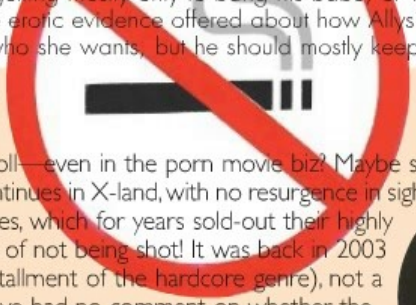
Porn News From Your Porn Authorities!

Mark And Allysin (Still) Sittin' In A Tree, F-U-C-K-I-N-G!

The worldwide porn industry is a great place to get laid and get paid, but it's a XXX train wreck when it comes to serious longterm romantic relationships. This week's girlfriend was your ex-girlfriend's last lesbian lover, and your best male friend is probably boning your former porn star wife on and off-screen. In other words, it's super-difficult for any pro carnal-couple to keep it together for any length of time. But don't count Mark Vega and Allysin Chaynes among them. Although between them they have starred in well over 400 porn tapes from 1996-2005, fucking each other and others on-camera, they have quit the sucks-for-bucks biz, but are still an item. The secret for their X-rated personal re-lay-tion-ship success? Even they are not sure, but a check on their hardcore histories might lend a clue. While Allysin, a petite blonde with heavy hooters did over 300 hardcore scenes, and Mark over 100, the vast majority of Mark's X-work was either with his beau, or at least in the same movie within eyeshot. So while Allysin could basically suck and fuck whomever she wanted to bring home the bucks, Mark was kept on a much shorter sexual lease, getting mostly only to bang his babe, or with Allysin watching. The moral of this porno story? Hard to say (no pun intended), but from the erotic evidence offered about how Allysin and Mark managed to stay together for a decade for on-camera debauchery? Let her fuck who she wants, but he should mostly keep it in his pants.

NO SMOKING SEX-TION?



Has the North American "anti-smoking" health movement finally taken it's toll—even in the porn movie biz? Maybe so, as the slow but steady disappearance of erotic vids featuring chicks smoking cigs continues in X-land, with no resurgence in sight. In fact the leading producer of such fetish-niche hardcore tapes, Kick Ass Pictures, which for years sold-out their highly entertaining "Smokin'" series is now celebrating the title's third year anniversary of not being shot! It was back in 2003 that the last newly produced edition of "Smokin'" was put out (their eighth installment of the hardcore genre), not a puff has been taken since then. And while Kick Ass Pictures company officials have had no comment on whether the series is finished, it does appear that the quirky sexual angle has come and gone.

"Porn is a business of fads, but it also reflects the direction of society as a whole, so when reckless behavior like smoking is 'in,' than it can also be seen as 'in' in porn," observes producer/director/performer Ken Wilkes, who has turned out hundreds of off-beat sex vids in his decade in porn. "Smoking is not cool these days, tobacco companies are having their asses sued off, so interest in it is proportionally slacking off in adult products as well. I would be very surprised to see any more new productions of all-smoking titles any time soon."

Carmen Luvana–She Did It Her Way!

Most girls getting into porn do it the "wrong" way—without any reliable type of official guide, organization or clearinghouse for information to intro new talent to XXX work. Most chicks spend their first year in hardcore getting ripped off, blown off, and screwed around. Talk to 99% of adult starlets today who have been in X over a year, and they will quickly tell you, recounting their X-rated beginnings, "If I had only known..."

For decades the first thing to do when you became a porn performer was to come to Los Angeles and look up Ed Powers and Randy West. Specializing in shooting new talent, both producer/director/performers always paid big bucks—often more than three times the going rate, to fuck chicks with no, or few hardcore titles to their carnal credit—Ed with his award-winning "Dirty Debutantes" series, and Randy with his similar-themed "Up N' Cummers" title. But this "fact" was not advertised, and the chicks that wound up with Ed and Randy and pocketed the major money did so by chance—while the majority of girls who shot first with other much-lesser-paying porn pushers got turned away by Ed and Randy when they finally came a knockin', because they had already done other movies, were no longer considered "fresh meat," and had forever lost their chance for that two-punch high cash score. But one current big name porn star that did manage to do her start in porn the "right way" and lust to tell about it is Carmen Luvana, whose contacts led her to star in "More Dirty Debutantes # 211," and then right afterwards in "Up N' Cummers # 101." Since then the big-boobed, blonde, sex-loving Carmen has continued her correct correct carnal career choice, limiting her on-screen sexings, and serving as a longtime contract girl first for New Sensations, and now Adam & Eve. But Carmen will never forget her first two on-screen fuckings, both for what it did for her pussy, and her bank account.

"My scene with Ed was very steamy, and with Randy was just as scintillating, but the most exciting thing about both was the check they handed me at the time—I was rich!" Carmen recalls. But alas Randy West has retired, closed down his series, and spending his days golfing in Vegas. Ed is still going strong, but the line to star in his high-paying fuck flicks wind around the block.

"Someone ought to be standing right outside LA and hand every girl some kind of porno map the minute you come into the city," laments ex-porn star Trisha Yen. "No one knows shit at the beginning, and a lot of money goes down the drain."

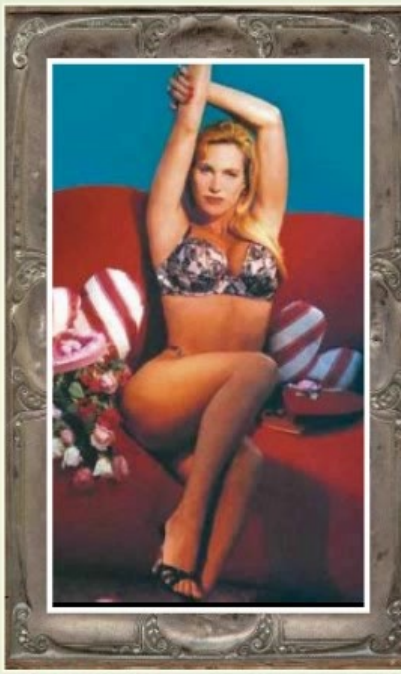
Last XXX Bow Before 200?

While Traci Lords is world-known as the most notorious star with a fake ID, most porn insiders equally recall the scandalous matter of one Alexandra Quinn, who pulled the same scam, until she too was found out and was bounced out of the XXX biz—all her hardcore titles—likes Lords'—pulled from circulation and destroyed. But unlike Lords, who fled the X-biz after being busted to become a mainstream actress, Quinn, after bouncing around Canada for a few years as a stripper, actually returned to porning, much to the chagrin of many sex producers who lost a bundle of $$$ when their tapes were shredded. But with good looks, a love of cock, and a renewed drive to become a porn star, Quinn was allowed back into XXX, although she remained "blacklisted" by some producers who could never forgive her deception. But now after many years in the adult video biz, at the ripe old age of 33, it appears that Quinn may have finally called it quits, having disappeared from LA porn circles a year back and not appearing in a new hardcore title since 2005.

Ironically, if Quinn has finally given up the sucks-for-bucks racket, according to the Internet Adult Film Database it will be after having done 198 porn flicks, just only two shy of the fabled "200" mark that is often cited by porn scribes as what separates legendary porn performers from all the others. But will Quinn be missed? Only sort of.

"She was a great performer, she did it all, anal, double-penetration, facial load shots, ass-to-mouth, yeah, she did it all!" chortled one porn director who has known Quinn since she became "legit."

"She cost a lot of people a lot of money, but since she was good, a lot of them let her back in—she was the Traci Lords that wouldn't die," he added, "But after all that, if that's true that she still didn't get to 200 films, well, who said life was fair?!"



In Praise of JULIE RAGE

Porn performers tend to cum and go with only a small handful becoming real-deal XXX stars, getting the kind of money, power and fornicative fame that approach the likes of a Jenna Jameson. Indeed most are like ex-starlet Julie Rage, nice, looking, nice body, do whatever is asked of them, make an okay living, and after a few years move on to other non-porn ventures usually the details of which are known to very few people. Today very few porn fans would even remember the name Julie Rage, as with the thousands of other starlets like her, but without the Julie Rage's of the porno world, there would be no porno world. While the likes of Jenna, Tera Patrick, Mary Carey and others of their X-types whose names everyone knows, make porn flicks very rarely, it remains the raunch responsibility of gals like Julie to keep churning out XXX products on a daily basis year-round. From 1995-2002 (she did her first X'er at the age of 26) the busty blonde Julie appeared in over 200 porno titles, the Los Angeles-born 36D-23-32 short-haired honey basically sucking and fucking whenever a job was offered. And Julie was quickly recognized as a willing and trouble-free pornster, doing anal, double-penetrations, facial cum shots, cum-swap and whatever else asked of her, and producers and directors alike repeatedly hired her. Vids with names like "Butthole Bunnies," "Pussy Principle," and "Thunderpussy" were her mainstay, and at her peak, Julie even got to star in a couple of namesake hardcore fuck flicks, "Julie Rage: The Girl Just Can't Take It 8," and "Julie Rage Against the Machine."

But after some eight years of humping on-camera Julie got married and drifted out of porn. There was no exact date of departure, no press releases, no going away parties—just as there aren't for all the other Julie Rage's of the past and present time. One day she was in porn, the next day she was not, and there was quickly someone to "take her place." In her wake she leaves the couple of hundred porn tapes she did still being sold over the internet, and perhaps the faded memories of a handful of X-biz insiders and historians, and that's "it." But in reality, what Julie and those like her did, do and will do are a lot more than just an "it." And the world of porno producers and consumers alike owe her and hers a great deal of eternal gratitude Thanks Julie, porn as we know it could never have done it without you—and that's a fact. □

SEX SECRET REVEALED!

HOLY SHIT!
3 Times in One Night?!

"His cock was so completely HARD & BIG. And his staying power was INSANE."

SECRET "Sex Serum" Exposed!

Are you the type of guy that women brag about - THAT "One Guy", the one that "rocked her world"? Now be honest, is that guy you? If not, I may have the secret answer that's been apparently keeping the "industry" guys at the top of their game for years. Check out this letter I received (from a chick none the less).

To the Editor: I don't usually write into magazines (especially mags like this), but after uncovering this amazing secret, I just had to blow the whistle on this stud. I know every girl says this, but I've only been with a handful (ok, maybe two handfuls) of guys sexually. And to be honest, a one night stand is a pretty rare occasion for me. But after partying with this guy for a couple of hours and grinding up against him I just had to get a glimpse at what this guy was packing.

Well, after heading back to his place, let's just say it got a little crazy. He made all the right moves and the sex that followed may have actually destroyed it for every other man! His cock was so completely hard and BIG. And his staying power was insane. Holy shit! I must have had 5 or 6 orgasms after being ravaged 3 times in one night. Now I've been with a couple of guys that performed well in the past. I know one of them was using Viagra, and the other a topical called Maxoderm (which also works pretty well). But hands down this guy was the "champ", I mean he performed sexually like a pro! So between the size of this guy's unit and the fact that he pounded me for nearly 4 hours, I just had to ask what this super stud was using to rock my world.

Well, after bribing him with some return "favors" he finally fessed up. Surprisingly enough, it was also a topical (like Maxoderm, but better). He referred to it as his "secret sexual serum", better known as PROMAGNUS. And, get this, my super stud also owned up to being an adult film star!! He claims that he'd never be able to perform at his job without the help of PROMAGNUS and that it maximized size while helping him to "recover" faster and do it more often (I'll say!). He even said that ALL male stars he knew in the industry use it – "What do you think, we have the super human ability to fuck like that naturally?"

So next time you think that these "super" studs are plugging away on screen with little or no help THINK AGAIN! They obviously need help like everyone else. So now the secret is out of the bag! I recommend PROMAGNUS to any man looking to perform like a porn star. I know that I'll never let any man that I'm with have sex without it again .

Alexa – from Vegas
